F. AND S. CLUB

Much interest is being aroused in Fun and Study Club this summer in the college preparatory course offered in Bible study. The vital doctrines of Bible teaching are being dealt with. The two lessons already studied have considered the phases of scriptural truth usually attacked by so-called "modernists," and the miracles of God's word. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." (II Tim. 3:16.)

Those present last week were Hazel Mae Johnson, Fred Powell, Ollie Stitts, Alice Ruggaff, Effie Eade, John Stanton, Lorene Keith, Adeline Campbell, Edward Morte, Glendora Theatre, Clayton Campbell, Mildred Hopper, Glenn Ham-mack, Theresa Tinning, Lorna Tinning, Mary Julia Beard, and George Wilkinson.

All young folks are welcome at the club.

The house in course of construction on Woodard avenue for Dave Adamson is nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller of Redondo boulevard attended the funeral of Mrs. Perry Schuster, held Wednesday in Long Beach. Mrs. Schuster passed away at Bakersfield.

Miss Elizabeth Fite took an examination in Los Angeles last week, with a view to taking up public library work.

Tom Thompson of Redondo boulevard is building a modern house on a lot recently acquired in Inglewood.

BRIEF NEWS

Wayne Cox, Clarence Lowe and Jack Crawford, local Western Rangers, will camp at Terminal over the weekend.

Mrs. E. W. Brumpton of Eshelman avenue will entertain the Past Noble Grand's Association at the regular monthly luncheon and business meeting next Monday.

The members of the Cosmos Club were entertained last Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Agnes Thrapp of Star street.

Mrs. George Bryant was a guest at the Writers Club luncheon given at Naples recently by Mrs. McLean of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shalhart were included among the 43 guests at the dinner given Sunday in honor of the eighty-sixth birthday of Zacharie Hendricks. Mr. Hendricks resides at the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle.

The birthday surprise party given Mrs. William Herlein of Inglewood Tuesday evening was attended by Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Burnett, of Redondo boulevard. Herlein, who is active in P. T. A. work in Section D, is well known to local P. T. A. workers.

WHAT'S WRONG HERE?

ANSWER—At informal dances, piano music is all that is necessary. The merry couple seen in today's lesson seem to be enjoying themselves notwithstanding. As, if they only KNEW how many people were looking at them through the medium of these pages, they would be more observant of the conventions, and not dance to a saxophone. —Copyrighted.
